FIGHTING FOR YOUR FREEDOM

Government and Democracy

Hastings: Fire fighters were not being allowed time off to vote on Election Day. ACLU took up the case and made sure these public servants were afforded time to exercise their right to vote.

Criminal Justice

Omaha: A woman was sexually assaulted while incarcerated and refused proper medical treatment by the Douglas County Correctional Center. ACLU intervention got her the medical help she needed.

Discrimination

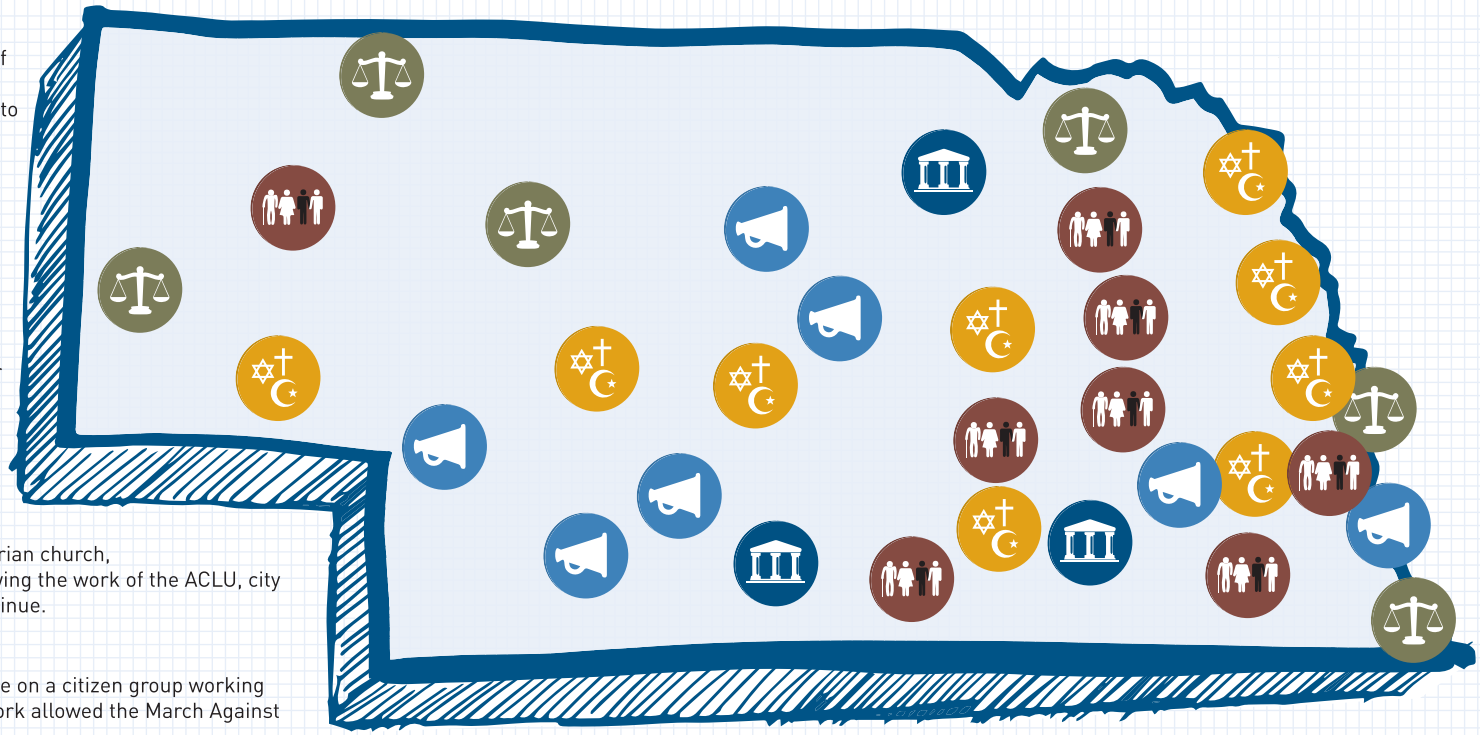
Wayne: Wayne State College prevented a transgender student from attending a class for "females only." ACLU informed the college this was a violation of federal law and they remedied the situation and issued an apology.

Religious Freedom

Lincoln: The Church of the Awesome God, a Presbyterian church, was almost evicted due to a zoning ordinance. Following the work of the ACLU, city ordinances were changed to allow the church to continue.

Free Speech

Gering: City officials tried to impose a burdensome fee on a citizen group working to raise awareness about child abuse. The ACLU's work allowed the March Against Child Abuse to take place.



The ACLU has secured a victory for freedom in every corner of Nebraska.
