Lancaster County Attorney and Lincoln City Attorney Announce “Warrant Week”

Contact: Pat Condon
Lancaster County Attorney
Tel: (402) 441-7321

Lincoln, Nebraska: Beginning Tuesday August 7, 2018 through Friday August 10th, 2018, anyone who has a Lancaster County Court warrant on any county or city misdemeanor charge may show up at 10:30 a.m. or 2:30 p.m. and request their case to be sent into the Court.

Once in court, the County and City Attorney have agreed to have the warrants recalled and the matter set for another hearing date. The defendant will be released on their own recognizance, (no cash bond). Further, if you had already posted a bond, and that bond has been forfeited, the County and City Attorney have agreed not to oppose the bond being reinstated and no further bond would be required.

Conditions, such as no contact, no alcohol, no drive, etc., may be placed or remain on the bond, but no money will be required.

If you have an attorney, contact your attorney and they can answer questions or assist in getting you set up for court. If you do not have an attorney, you can contact the County or City attorney and they may be able to answer questions you have about this process.
